

Health Care Services That Will Continue to be Available on Both the Albert Lea and Austin Campuses

Doctor visits – primary care (family medicine, internal medicine, pediatrics), specialists*
Immunizations, flu shots, well-child checks, annual check-ups
Women’s health care – annual check-ups, gynecology visits, prenatal and postnatal care
Emergency department - both campuses will continue to be Level 4 Trauma Centers
Urgent Care/Same-day Clinic/Express Care
Same-day (outpatient) surgeries and procedures (e.g., colonoscopies, cataract surgeries, orthopedics, etc.)
Laboratory services – blood draws, urine specimens, medication monitoring
Radiology services – X-rays, scans
Pharmacy services – retail pharmacy, pharmacist consultations about medications
Therapy services (physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, etc.)
Retail services (Mayo Clinic Store for medical equipment and supplies, Optical Shop)

*Specialties offered at Mayo Clinic Health System – Albert Lea and Austin Campuses: ENT/audiology, eye services, general surgery, orthopedics, sports medicine, podiatry, cardiology, dermatology, endocrinology, neurology, occupational medicine, outpatient addiction services, psychiatry and psychology, pulmonology and sleep medicine

Services Unique to Each Campus

Available on Albert Lea campus	Available on Austin campus
Cancer Center	Overnight hospitalization for illnesses or treatments
Dialysis	Major surgeries that require hospitalization
Wound care (hyperbaric chamber)	Intensive Care Unit (ICU)
Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation (HealthReach, Industrial Medicine)	Childbirth services (labor and delivery, nursery)
Inpatient behavioral health and addiction services	Pain Clinic

Timeline for Service Transitions

October 2017	Albert Lea Special Care Unit transitions to Austin ICU
Early 2018	Major surgeries (requiring hospitalization) performed on Austin campus
Mid-2018*	Austin Psychiatric Services Inpatient Unit (PSU) moves to Albert Lea campus
Early 2019	Albert Lea Medical/Surgical Unit transition to Austin
2019/2020*	Childbirth services transition to Austin campus

*Exact transition dates may be influenced by construction schedules, staffing considerations or other factors